Standard of Ethical Conduct

Training Requirement

All instructional personnel and administrators are required as a condition of employment to complete training on these standards of ethical conduct.

Reporting Misconduct by instructional personnel and administrators

All employees and administrators have an obligation to report misconduct by instructional personnel and school administrators which affect the health, safety, or welfare of a student. Examples of misconduct include, drug and alcohol use, disparaging comments, prejudice or bigotry, sexual innuendo, cheating or testing violations, physical aggression, and accepting or offering favors. Reports of misconduct of employees should be made to the owner, Maria Mauricio 1541 SE 12th AVE Suite #16 Homestead, FL 33034. Any reports of misconduct committed by administrators should be made to Maria Mauricio and she will report it to law enforcement, DCF, School choice, step up for students, and if needed, the parents or guardians of the child. This Standard of Ethical Conduct letter is posted on the wall of the school principal's office and the web site of the school principitosdaycare.com

Liability Protections

An employer who discloses information about a former or current employee to a prospective employer of the former or current employee upon request of the prospective employer or the former or current employee is immune from civil liability for such disclosure or its consequences unless it is shown by clear and convincing evidence that the information disclosed by the former or current employer was knowingly false or violated any civil right of the former or current employee protected under F.S.
